Hours and overtime

- Ordinary hours are:
  - 38 hours a week
  - worked on not more than 5 consecutive days of the week
  - between 7:00am and 7:00pm
- Part time and casual employees have a minimum shift length of 3 consecutive hours.
- Ordinary hours are to be worked in a 20-day, 4-week cycle with 0.4 of an hour of each day accruing as an entitlement to take the 20th day in each cycle as an Accrued Day Off. The employer and employee may agree that ordinary hours may be worked on a different basis as outlined in the award. View the Animal Welfare award at www.wairc.wa.gov.au.
- The employer must give at least one week's notice (from the first day of a cycle of the standard ordinary hours) of the time at which they require the employee to commence and cease work. If notice is not provided or work is performed outside the hours notified they must be paid for at overtime rates (except in cases of emergency, staff illness or accidents which prevent such notification).
- All ordinary hours of work on Saturdays must be paid at the rate of ordinary time plus 25%. All ordinary hours of work on Sundays must be paid at the rate of ordinary time plus 50%. These penalties apply rather than any night penalties that may apply on Saturdays and Sundays.
- Employees employed where the ordinary hours of duty extend beyond 7.00 pm must be paid an extra five percent for each shift so worked. Employees employed where the ordinary hours of duty extend beyond midnight must be paid an extra ten per cent for each shift so worked.

Overtime

- All work performed outside the ordinary hours of duty is overtime must be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time after that.
- Work done after 12 noon on Saturdays or on Sundays must be paid at the rate of double time.
- Work done on a public holiday must be paid at the rate of double time and a half.
- By agreement between the employee and employer time off in lieu of payment for overtime may be granted proportionate to the payment to which the employee is entitled. This time is to be taken in unbroken periods according to each period of overtime worked (unless otherwise agreed between the employee and employer). The actual period of time off may be accrued and taken at a time agreed between the employer and employee.

Meal breaks

- A meal break of not less than half an hour and not more than one hour is to be allowed between the fourth and fifth hour of work unless otherwise agreed by the employer and the employee in times of emergency or staff accident or illness.
- All employees must be allowed a tea break of ten minutes daily between the second and third hour from starting time each day. The tea break will be counted as time worked.
- Employees called upon to work during the ordinary meal break must be paid overtime rates for all such work, except when in the case of emergency it is necessary to work up to 15 minutes into a meal break.

Deductions from pay

An employer may deduct from an employee's pay an amount:

- the employer is authorised, in writing, by the employee to deduct and pay on behalf of the employee
- the employer is authorised to deduct and pay on behalf of the employee under the relevant WA award
- the employer is authorised or required to deduct by law or a court order.

Employment of children

- Under the Children and Community Services Act 2004, it is illegal to employ children under the age of 15 in this industry, except if the child is working as part of a school program or in a family business.
- School aged children must not be employed during school hours, unless participating in a school program.

Allowances

Allowance	When allowance is paid	Rate
Meal Money	When employee is required to work overtime for more than two hours, and not supplied with a meal by the employer. If owing to the amount of overtime worked, a second or subsequent meal is required and a meal is not supplied by the employer, a subsequent meal allowance must be paid. Meal money provisions do not apply: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• if the employee was notified the previous day or earlier that he/she is required to work overtime or</li><li>• if the employee lives in the same locality as their place of work and can reasonably go home</li></ul>	$7.75  $5.30 for a subsequent meal.
Location Allowance	Where working in certain regional towns in Western Australia (paid on a proportionate basis to casual/part time employees and apprentices)	See Location Allowance page of Commerce website for the amount payable for each town or Clause 14 of the Award
Motor Vehicle Allowance	See the full award at www.wairc.wa.gov.au for details on motor vehicle allowance.

Public holidays

- Full time employees are entitled to public holidays (or days substituted for public holidays) without deduction of pay. Part time employees are entitled to public holidays (or days substituted for public holidays) without deduction of pay if they would ordinarily be required to work on that day if it was not a public holiday.
- If a public holiday falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the following Monday will be considered to be the public holiday. However, if Boxing Day falls on a Sunday or Monday, the following Tuesday will be considered to be the public holiday. When a public holiday is substituted with another day, the public holiday itself is no longer considered a public holiday for the purposes of the WA award.
- If an employee works on a public holiday or substituted public holiday they must be paid at the rate of double time and one half.
- To view public holiday dates visit our website at www.commerce.wa.gov.au/labourrelations.

Leave entitlements

Quick reference guide

Leave entitlement	Full time	Part time	Casual
Annual leave	✓	✓	✗
Sick and carer's leave	✓	✓	✗
Unpaid carer's leave	✓	✓	✓
Bereavement leave	✓	✓	✓
Unpaid parental leave	✓	✓	✓
Long service leave	✓	✓	✓

This WA Award summary covers the basic leave entitlements for employees covered by the Animal Welfare Industry Award but does not include all details on leave obligations and entitlements. Full details of conditions are contained in the Animal Welfare Industry Award at www.wairc.wa.gov.au, the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 and the Long Service Leave Act 1958.

Annual leave

- Full time employees are entitled to a minimum of four weeks of paid annual leave for each year of completed service, up to 152 hours. Part time employees are entitled to a minimum of four weeks of paid annual leave per year paid on a pro rata basis according to the number of hours they are required ordinarily to work in a four week period. Casual employees are not entitled to annual leave.
- Annual leave is a minimum entitlement in the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 and the Animal Welfare Industry Award sets out additional requirements regarding annual leave and annual leave loading.
- During a period of annual leave an employee must be paid annual leave loading of 17.5%. Annual leave loading is not paid on proportionate leave on termination.
- Annual leave accrues on a weekly basis:
  - A full time employee accrues 2.923 hours of annual leave for each completed week of work.
  - A part time employee accrues the relevant proportion of 2.923 hours annual leave for each completed week of work.
  - Wageline's Annual Leave Calculation Guide can help to work out annual leave entitlements.

Sick and carer's leave

- Sick and carer's leave entitles an employee to paid time off work due to either illness or injury to themselves (sick leave), or because they have to care for an ill or injured family member (carer's leave). Casual employees are not entitled to paid sick leave or paid carer's leave.
- Full time and part time employees are entitled to paid sick and carer's leave equal to the number of hours they would ordinarily work in a two week period, up to 76 hours per year. Sick and carer's leave is a cumulative entitlement, any leave not taken in one year can be carried over to the next year.
- Sick and carer's leave accrues on a weekly basis for full and part time employees. Wageline's Sick Leave Calculation Guide can help to work out sick and carer's leave entitlements.
- Employees, including casuals, are entitled to unpaid carer's leave of up to 2 days for each occasion on which a member of the employee's family or household requires care or support because of an illness or injury or an unexpected emergency affecting the member.
- Sick and carer's leave is a minimum entitlement from the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act.

Bereavement leave

- All employees, including casual employees, are entitled to two days paid bereavement leave on the death of a spouse, de facto partner, parent, step-parent, grandparent, child, step-child, grandchild, sibling or any other member of the employee's household. The two days need not be consecutive. Bereavement leave is a minimum entitlement from the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993.

Long service leave

- Full time, part time and casual employees are entitled to long service leave (LSL).
- Long service leave is an entitlement from the Long Service Leave Act 1958.
- The length of continuous employment for an employee's long service leave entitlement is based on the total time with the business, rather than any one employer. An employer who buys a business or part of a business will take on the long service leave obligations for existing employees if there has been a transmission of business. This applies regardless of anything written in the sale contract.

Amount of continuous employment with same business	Amount of leave
After 10 years of continuous employment	8 <sup>2/3</sup> weeks
For every 5 years of continuous employment after this initial 10 years	4 <sup>1/3</sup> weeks
When an employee is terminated (except for serious misconduct) or resigns after they have completed between 7 and 10 years continuous employment	The employee is entitled to be paid out for LSL on a proportionate basis. LSL payment is worked out on a pro-rata basis for the entire period of employment, including years, months and days
When an employee is terminated or resigns after they have worked continuously for 10 or more years	The employee is entitled to be paid out for LSL. LSL payment is worked out on completed years of service only

- An employee who has completed a full qualifying period of service (e.g. 10 years) is entitled to be paid out their full long service leave entitlement (e.g. 8<sup>2/3</sup> weeks) on termination, regardless of the circumstances of the termination.
- Where an employee has a period of service that is less than the full qualifying period and they were terminated by their employer for serious misconduct, they are not entitled to pro rata LSL.
- More detail and a calculation guide are on the Long Service Leave page of the Commerce website.

Parental leave

- Employees, including eligible casual employees, are entitled to the unpaid parental leave entitlements in the National Employment Standards of the Fair Work Act 2009, as well as a number of more beneficial conditions contained in the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 (a return to work after parental leave on a modified basis and a reversion to pre-parental leave working conditions). Further details are on the Parental leave page of the Commerce website.

Resignation, termination and redundancy

Resignation by the employee

- Full time and part time employees are required to provide:
  - one day's notice if the employee is on a probationary period of up to 3 months
  - one week's notice or forfeiture of one week's pay in lieu of notice at all other times.
- A casual employee can resign by providing one hour's notice to the employer.

Termination

- An employer is required to give a casual employee one hours' notice of termination.
- Except in cases of serious misconduct, an employer is required to give full time and part time employees the following period of notice of termination (or payment in lieu):

Period of continuous service	Notice period
Not more than 1 year	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years*	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years*	3 weeks
More than 5 years*	4 weeks

- *Employees over 45 years of age with two or more years of continuous service must receive an additional week's notice.

Redundancy

- An employee is redundant when their employer has made a definite decision that they no longer wish the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone.
- An employer has a number of obligations in redundancy situations and may be required to pay severance pay. Please visit the Redundancy pages on the Commerce website for redundancy obligations.

About this Award Summary

This WA Award Summary is a summary of the state Animal Welfare Industry Award and does not include all obligations required by the award. It is important that you also refer to the full Animal Welfare Industry which is available on the WA Industrial Relations Commission website - www.wairc.wa.gov.au. Relevant provisions of other employment legislation also apply to employees and you may need to refer to the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 and the Long Service Leave Act 1958.

The Animal Welfare Industry Award is a legal document that outlines the minimum wages and condition of employment that must be provided to employees who are covered by the award. Employers and employees cannot agree to lesser conditions.

Please call Wageline on 1300 655 266 if you have any queries on employment wages and conditions in this industry.
