2. Interpretation

In these T&Cs, unless the contrary intention appears:

- a. The word "person" includes a natural person, firm, a body corporate, incorporated association, unincorporated association or an authority.
- b. The singular includes the plural and vice versa and words of one gender include all other genders.
- c. A reference to any Act includes any Act amending, replacing, or consolidating the Act.
- d. A reference to a person includes a reference to the person's successors, substitutes (including, without limitation, persons taking by novation), assigns, executors and administrators.
- e. An agreement, representation or warranty on the part of two or more persons binds them jointly and severally and an agreement, representation or warranty in favour of two or more persons is for the benefit of them jointly and severally.
- f. A reference to any thing is a reference to the whole and each part of it and a reference to a group of persons is a reference to all of them collectively, to any two or more of them collectively and to each of them individually.
- g. Nothing in these T&Cs may be construed to make either party a partner, agent, employee or joint venture of the other.

3. System Access

- a. The State will provide the User with Authorised Access in the manner set out in these T&Cs upon the receipt of a signed User Account and Direct Debit Authorisation Form which provides direct debit details and nominates an Employee Account Administrator.
- b. The State may monitor the User's (including its Employees) Use of the System and reserves the right to suspend or withdraw the User's access to the System or an Employee account at any time and for any reason, including where the State becomes aware of any misuse or Unauthorised Access of the System by the User (including its Employees or other persons).

3.1 The System

- a. will not be available to the User and its Employees for access during Downtime.
- b. is dependent on an Internet Protocol connection. The User will need to make its own arrangements with an Internet Service Provider for connections to the Internet. The State takes no responsibility whatsoever for the performance or reliability of the connection chosen by the User.
- c. is available via most computer or mobile devices that is able to run an Internet Browser that is JavaScript enabled. The performance of the computing hardware and software is the responsibility of the User.
- d. operates best with an Internet Browser that is equal to or better than Internet Explorer v11 or Google Chrome.

3.2 The User

- a. may only access and Use the System where the User is a party to the bond or is a duly authorised representative of the owner who is authorised to:
 - i. lodge, vary or apply for the disposal of the security bond;
 - ii. undertake searches of the Data held in the System related to the User;
 - iii. print extracts of information related to security bonds; and
 - iv. obtain reports relating to that User's use of the System.
- b. must ensure that all security bond money is paid to the Bond Administrator as soon as practical, or in any event within 14 days after receipt of the person's bond in accordance with Schedule 1 clause 5A(1) of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987. Security bond money is only considered paid to the Bond Administrator once the direct debit payment has been approved.
- c. including its Employees, must not disclose an On-Line Password to any other person, business or entity.
- d. must ensure security of access to the System and warrants that it will install and maintain anti-virus software and take all reasonable steps to prevent Unauthorised Access including, but not limited to, Hacking.
- e. must, at all times, take all reasonable steps to ensure that its Employees are complying with these T&Cs.
- f. must comply with all laws that apply in relation to the privacy or confidentiality of Data that it holds or can access.
- g. must immediately notify the Department if the User becomes aware of Unauthorised Access including, but not limited to, Hacking.
- h. must not alter Data extracted from the System in any material way that may reasonably mislead and must clearly indicate to any Third Party the date on which Data is obtained from the System.
- i. must comply with any direction issued by the State in respect of the manner in which the System is to be accessed or used.
- j. may provide representatives by giving written notice to the State. The notice must specify that a person is to be considered an authorised representative for the purposes of these T&Cs.
- k. does not own any Intellectual Property in the System.

4. Employee accounts

4.1 Level of access

An Employee may be granted;

- a. read only access (view records and create paper forms);
- b. submitter access (completion and submission of forms);
- c. approver access (approving payments), or
- d. both submitter access and approver access.

4.2 Creation & Modification

- a. The State will create a new Employee account for the nominated Employee Account Administrator within three (3) business days of a notice, which specifies the Level of access to be granted to the Employee Account Administrator and the Employee Account Administrator's email address being received by the State from an authorised representative of the User.

- b. A notice to request that an Employee account for the Employee Account Administrator be modified will be actioned by the State as soon as practicable after receiving notice from an authorised representative of the User.
- c. The Employee Account Administrator is responsible for the creation and modification of all other Employee accounts.

4.3 Termination

- a. It is the responsibility of the User to provide a notice to the State to terminate an Employee account for the Employee Account Administrator and the State agrees that that notice will be actioned by the State within two (2) business days of receiving notice.
- b. If an Employee, other than an authorised representative of the User, provides notice to the State that an Employee account should be terminated the State will terminate the Employee account and will immediately notify an authorised representative of the User.
- c. It is the responsibility of the User and the Employee Account Administrator to terminate any Employee account immediately if the employee no longer requires access to the system to complete their duties, if the employee is no longer employed by the User, or where the user has reason to believe the employee is acting irresponsibly or fraudulently in their use of the system.

5. Direct Debit Authorisation

- a. The State may deduct monies from the User's bank account(s), unless the User provides notice to the Department of the termination of that authority or the addition of a new authority from time to time, for the purposes of a transaction being initiated in the System by the User.
- b. The State may also deposit monies into the User's bank account(s), unless the User provides notice to the Department of the termination of that authority or the addition of a new authority from time to time, for the purpose of complying with an Order for Disposal of Security Bond issued by the Magistrates Court or if the User omits to provide valid bank account details on a Joint application for disposal of security bond form.
- c. Where the User is a licensed real estate agent, the User acknowledges that only the User's trust account(s) can be used for the purposes of the System and it must continue to meet its obligations under the Real Estate and Business Agents Act 1978 and associated Regulations in respect of trust moneys.
- d. The User and the State are bound by the terms of the Direct Debit Request (DDR) Service Agreement which outlines the obligations of both the State and the User under a direct debit arrangement for the BondsOnline system. The terms of the DDR Service Agreement are outlined at Annexure A to these T&C's.

6. Downtime

- a. The State will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the System will be available at all times, other than Downtime.
- b. The State does not warrant System availability and the User releases the State from any and all liability as a result of System unavailability. The State will, whenever it is reasonably practicable to do so, provide notice in advance of scheduled System maintenance but only when the State reasonably believes Downtime will be one (1) hour or more.
- c. Security bonds must be lodged with the Bond Administrator within the period required by the Acts, even in the event of Downtime. If Downtime is expected to continue for a significant period, the Bond Administrator will notify the User in accordance with clause 6(b) and advise the User if lodgement of a paper form is acceptable as an alternative to lodgement via BondsOnline.

7. Modification of System

The State may at any time modify the whole or any part of, or add functionality to, the System, the Data or any equipment, hardware, software or other thing forming part of or in connection with the System or may turn off any functionality of the System as it sees fit to protect the interests of the State.

8. Term and termination

- a. The Term commences on the date that access is granted to the System and continues until it is terminated by the State or the User after giving 21 days written notice to the other party.
- b. The State may terminate the Term with immediate effect if an Event of Default occurs, by giving notice to the User. The State may exercise its right under this clause while reserving its right at law and in equity in connection with the Event of Default.

9. Event of Default

An Event of Default occurs if:

- a. in the reasonable opinion of the State, the User has done, or omitted to do something that is prejudicial to the good reputation or objects of the State; or
- b. the User breaches any provision or obligation of these T&Cs which is not remedied within seven (7) days of the State providing written notice of the breach;

10.Exclusion of warranties

- a. The State does not warrant that the System will perform in any particular manner.
- b. The User agrees that except as otherwise provided by these T&Cs, all terms, conditions and warranties implied by custom, general law or written law are excluded.
- c. When a written law implies any term, condition or warranty in respect of the supply of goods or services ("Prescribed Term") and that written law prohibits the limitation, modification or exclusion of the Prescribed Term, the Prescribed Term will be deemed to be included in these T&Cs. However, the liability of the State for breach of the Prescribed Term will, to the extent permitted by the written law, be limited at the option of the State to:
 - i. supplying the service again;
 - ii. the payment of the cost of having the service supplied again;
 - iii. repair or replacement of the goods, or the supply of equivalent goods;
 - iv. the payment of the cost of repairing or replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods.

11.Exclusion of liabilities

- a. The User acknowledges that it accesses the System at its own risk and at its own cost and that the State will not be liable to the User in respect of any loss, cost, or damage (including consequential loss or damage), however arising, which may be suffered or incurred or which may arise directly or indirectly in respect of the System, the User's access to the System, or the Agreement including, without limitation, loss or damage in connection with Downtime or problems associated with any System malfunction or Unauthorised Access, included but not limited to, Hacking.
- b. The user agrees to indemnify the State from and against all actions, suits, claims, demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, loss and damage (including legal costs and expenses) reasonably incurred or suffered by the State as a direct or indirect consequence of:
 - i. a breach of these Terms and Conditions by the User; or
 - ii. any wilful, unlawful or negligent act or omission by the User in connection with the User's or its Employees' Use of the System.
- c. The State expressly disclaims all liability for, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any and all loss or damage arising from any error, omission, or defect, in any extract produced from the System, Data or the information contained therein, arising from Use by the User or an Employee.

12.Notices

- a. A notice or other communication in connection with these T&Cs must be in writing, may be given by a duly authorised representative of the User and must be emailed to bondsonline@dmirs.wa.gov.au.
- b. A notice or other communication takes effect from the time it is received, unless a later time is specified in the notice or communication. For the purposes of this clause a letter sent by post is taken to be received on the third Business Day after posting and a communication sent by email is taken to be received on the next Business Day.

13.Compliance with laws

Nothing in these T&Cs will in any way waive or diminish the Applicant's obligations to comply with the Acts or any other applicable laws.

14.Directions and instructions

The Applicant will comply with any direction or instruction of the State from time to time.

15.Variation

The State may at any time review and vary these T&Cs and such variations shall be effective immediately upon posting them on the website www.commerce.wa.gov.au/bondsonline.

16.Information

Information may be subject to the State Records Act 2000 and the Freedom of Information Act 1992 and may be prepopulated on Magistrate Court Application Forms for parties applying to the Magistrates Court in accordance with Schedule 1 clause 8(1) of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987, or disclosed in response to Parliamentary questions, Ministerial inquiries and inquiries conducted by or on behalf of the Auditor General of Western Australia, and if technical integration between the System and other software exists, the State may collect information from that software provider and may provide any information necessary for the purposes of that integration.

Annexure A -
