

Circular 1/2019 – Australian Council of Trade Unions Public Rally

The Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) is holding a 'Change the Rules' public rally at 12:30pm on 10 April 2019 before Parliament House.

Public sector employers can facilitate employee attendance at the rally via applicable industrial instrument provisions or existing administrative practices (e.g. flexible working provisions, annual or long service leave entitlements, meal breaks).

Approval of employee requests should be considered in the context of operational need and maintenance of services to the public.

Please contact your Public Sector Labour Relations adviser should you require further advice.
