

First Class Mine Manager statutory certificate - Examples of suitable roles against “relevant activity”

Managing ground stability	Production activities in stopes and development faces	Mine transport and other services necessary for mining operations to be carried out	Mine ventilation, mine planning or mine emergency management
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cablebolter (ground support) • Jumbo Bolting and meshing (development) • Service crew ground support • Fibrecrete and mesh installation • Scaling crew 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Long hole production stope drilling • Offsiding driller • Jumbo development drilling • Offsiding jumbo • Stope/ mill hole loading (manual, semi-autonomous and or remote) • Stope hand held mining • Box hole drilling, raise bore drilling or airleg rising • Service crew installing services for development progression 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Offsiding • Trucking • Loading and or Hauling operator • Service crew specially ventilation and road maintenance • Personnel carrier/ Nipper or cage operator • Crusher operator • Grader road maintenance and loading and maintenance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Underground ventilation officer • Mine planning engineer • Preparing principal mining hazard management plans • Preparing emergency plans • Preparing the emergency response plan • Emergency response team • Ventilation technician • Ventilation crew • Emergency coordinator • Control room coordinator/supervisor • Re-entry crew • 2IC of a production crew
Use of explosives
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shotfirer • Blast crew • Charging crew 			