Use of this form

This form is to be used by people applying to be licensed as tradespersons (drainage plumbing) with the Plumbers Licensing Board.

In Western Australia the Plumbers Licensing Act 1995 provides for six occupational licences in plumbing:

- plumbing contractor's licence
- plumbing tradesperson's licence
- tradesperson's licence (drainage plumbing)
- provisional tradesperson's licence
- provisional tradesperson's licence (drainage plumbing)
- restricted plumbing permit.

Tradesperson's licence (drainage plumbing)

A licenced tradesperson (drainage plumbing) must work under the general direction of a licenced plumbing contractor. A tradesperson (drainage plumbing) can:

- carry out drainage plumbing work; and
- supervise the carrying out of plumbing work by an apprentice or the holder of a provisional tradesperson's licence.

Duration of licence

The tradesperson's licence is valid for three years.

Application and licensing fees

Two fees are payable with this application:

- a non-refundable application fee.
- a licence fee.

GST is not payable on the application or licence fee. If the Board does not grant your licence, the licence fee will be refunded.

Licensing requirements

To be considered for a licence you must:

- provide a complete application including payment of application and licence fees;
- have the required qualifications;
- be a fit and proper person to be licensed; and
- comply with any other requirements.

Photographs

Provide two identical passport size photographs of yourself. The photographs are used in the identity card issued with your licence. Video camera or photocopied images are not suitable.

Complete your application

Your application cannot be processed unless all sections are completed, photos and all other attachments provided and all fees paid.

Incomplete applications

The Department cannot process incomplete applications. If your application is incomplete it may be returned and the application fee will not be refunded.

Return of documents

The Department will not return documents including photographs submitted in licence applications. If you need a copy of the application or attached documents, please make a copy before you lodge your application.

After your application is lodged

When the department is satisfied that your application is complete and payment is received, your application will be assessed and determined. If your application is assessed as incomplete, a licensing officer will advise you accordingly and request the required information. Once the application is determined you will be notified by a licensing officer without delay.

SAT review of Board decisions

If you are aggrieved by a decision of the Board to refuse to renew your licence or to impose a condition on your licence you may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision.
