

Motor vehicle repair business licence or motor vehicle repairer's certificate: what's the difference?

Are you:

- the owner of a motor vehicle repair business?
- a self-employed motor vehicle repairer?
- the operator of a mobile repair business?
- an employer of a certified repairer who supervises repair work?

If you answered "yes" to any of the questions above, you need a motor vehicle repair business licence

Do you:

- own a repair business and do repair work?
- supervise the repair work of others?
- work under a supervisor who does not have a certificate for the same class of repair work as you?
- do repair work unsupervised?

If you answered yes to any of the questions above, you need a motor vehicle repairer's certificate
