

Does the law about keeping pets in rental premises need to change?

Possible options

- Allow a landlord to refuse only where there are reasonable grounds to do so.
- Allow a landlord to refuse only where the landlord has an exemption from the court or the Commissioner.
- Clarify that tenants must make sure their pets do not cause a nuisance and must repair any damage to the premises caused by the pet.

Tell us what you think...

- Except in limited circumstances, should all tenants be allowed to keep pets?
- If tenants are allowed to keep pets what types of conditions should apply?
- What might be reasonable grounds for a landlord to refuse a tenant's request to keep a pet?
- If tenants are allowed to keep pets, what changes should be made to the Residential Tenancies Act to reduce the risks for landlords?

It's easy to have your say!
