

How do we ensure landlords do repairs and maintenance to their property?

Possible options

- Require all landlords to lodge a maintenance bond with the Bond Administrator.
- Educate landlords on their obligations to undertake repairs and maintenance.

Tell us what you think...

- Should landlords be required to deposit a bond with the Bond Administrator to cover the cost of repairs to the property?
- If a landlord's bond was introduced, what would be a fair amount?
- Is there another way to make sure landlords pay for repairs in a timely manner?

It's easy to have your say!
