WA Award Summary

Vehicle Builders Award

1 July 2018

About this Award Summary

This WA Award Summary is a summary of the state Vehicle Builders Award and does not include all obligations required by the award. It is important that you also refer to the full Vehicle Builders Award that is available on the WA Industrial Relations Commission website www.wairc.wa.gov.au

Provisions of other employment legislation also apply to employees and have been included in this WA Award Summary where appropriate. You may need to refer to the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993, the Long Service Leave Act 1958, and the Industrial Relations Act 1979 for full details.

This document is formatted for viewing on the Wageline website and contains web links to other relevant information. If you are using a printed copy in which links are not visible, all additional information can be found at www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/wageline or by contacting Wageline on 1300 655 266.

Employers covered by this WA Award are legally required to keep employment records. Employers can be fined up to $5,000 for not keeping employment records, for keeping inadequate or fraudulent records, or for not providing records to Industrial Inspectors when required to do so. Page 5 details record keeping requirements.

The Vehicle Builders Award is a legal document that outlines the minimum wages and conditions of employment that must be provided to employees who are covered by the award. Employers and employees cannot agree to lesser conditions.

Industrial Inspectors at the Department of Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety have statutory powers to investigate employee complaints about underpayment of wages or leave entitlements under this WA Award and state employment laws. The Department can prosecute employers in the Industrial Magistrates Court for not paying the rates of pay, including overtime, penalty rates and allowances required by this WA Award.
Rates of pay

All rates of pay are gross rates (before tax). Current rates applied from the first pay period on or after 1 July 2018.

- Some of the pay rates in the Vehicle Builders Award fall below the minimum wages set by the 2018 State Wage Order. In such instances the rates listed here are the legal minimum rate.
- Under the Children and Community Services Act 2004, it is illegal to employ children under the age of 15 in this industry, except if the child is working as part of a school program or in a family business.

Trainees

For pay rates for registered trainees working under the Vehicle Builders Award, please contact Wageline on 1300 655 266.
Deductions from pay

An employer may deduct from an employee’s pay an amount:

- the employer is authorised, in writing, by the employee to deduct and pay on behalf of the employee
- the employer is authorised to deduct and pay on behalf of the employee under the relevant WA award
- the employer is authorised or required to deduct by law or a court order.

Hours and overtime

- The ordinary hours for full time employees is as follows:
  - an average of 38 per week to be worked on one of the bases prescribed in the award (see clause 7 of the award for details)
  - Monday to Friday
  - between 6:00am and 6:00pm
  - not exceeding 10 hours on any day.
- Where the ordinary working hours are to exceed eight on any day, the arrangement of hours must be subject to agreement between the employer and the majority of employees in the plant, section or sections concerned.

Overtime

- All overtime worked Monday to Friday is paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time after that.
- Work done on Saturdays prior to 12:00pm must be paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time after that, except in certain circumstances in which ordinary hours can be worked on Saturday (see Clause 7. – Hours for details).
- Work done on Saturdays after 12:00pm or on Sundays must be paid for at the rate of double time.
- A part time employee must be paid overtime rates for all hours in excess of the hours fixed under their contract of employment.

Shift work

- Specific hours, rostering arrangements and allowances apply for employees working on a continuous shift basis. See clause 7 of the Vehicle Builders Award on the WA Industrial Relations Commission website www.wairc.wa.gov.au for details.

Public holidays

- A full time employee is entitled to public holidays (or days substituted for public holidays) without deduction of pay. A part time employee is entitled to a public holiday (or day substituted for a public holiday) without deduction of pay if they would ordinarily be required to work on that day if it was not a public holiday.
- When Christmas Day or New Year's Day falls on a Saturday or Sunday, such holiday is be observed on the next succeeding Monday - where Boxing Day falls on a Sunday or a Monday, such holiday is observed on the next succeeding Tuesday. When a public holiday is substituted with another day, the public holiday itself is no longer considered a public holiday for the purposes of the award.
- Work performed on public holidays must be paid for at the rate of double time and one half.
- Visit the Public Holidays in Western Australia page to view the public holiday dates.
Employment of children

- Under the Children and Community Services Act 2004, it is illegal to employ children under the age of 15 in this industry, except if the child is working as part of a school program or in a family business.
- School aged children must not be employed during school hours, unless participating in a school program.
- Visit Wageline’s When children can work in Western Australia page for more information.

Employment records

- Employers are legally required to keep employment records which demonstrate that employees have been paid all entitlements under the Vehicle Builders Award and relevant legislation.
- Employers must keep all employment records for at least seven years after they are made for both current and past employees. Records relating to long service leave must be kept for seven years from the date employment ends.
- Employers can be fined up to $5,000 by the Industrial Magistrates Court for not keeping employment records or for keeping inadequate or fraudulent records. A common requirement that employers fail to observe is a lack of detail in keeping employment records.
- Employers must keep records that detail:
  - Employee’s name
  - Date of birth if under 21 years of age
  - Date employee commenced with the employer
  - Total number of hours worked each week
  - The gross and net amounts paid to the employee
  - All information required to calculate long service leave entitlements and payment
  - All pay deductions and reasons for them
  - Name of WA award that applies
  - Daily start and finish time and meal breaks taken
  - Employment status (full time, part time, casual)
  - Employee’s classification under the award
  - All leave taken, whether paid, partly paid or unpaid
  - Any other information necessary to prove that the wages received by an employee comply with the requirements of the Vehicle Builders Award, such as overtime hours worked and allowances paid. Contact Wageline or view the full Vehicle Builders Award on the WA Industrial Relations Commission website www.wairc.wa.gov.au for details.
- Employment records can be written or electronic as long as they are in a form that can be printed. Time and wage books can be used to keep employment records, however, it is the employer’s responsibility to ensure the time and wage book includes all of the required information.
- The records must be in English.
- Wageline’s record keeping templates help small business employers meet their legal obligations for time and wages record keeping and keep accurate employee leave records.

Payslips

- An employee may request an employer to provide payslips for each pay period.
- The payslip should include the amount of wages paid, the amount of deductions made, the net amount being paid and the number of hours worked.
- Visit the Record keeping requirements page for Wageline’s payslip and record keeping templates.
Meal breaks – all employees

- An employee is entitled to a meal break which must not exceed one hour, after not more than five hours of work. If the meal break is postponed for more than half an hour, the employee must be paid at overtime rates until released for a meal break.
- A rest period of seven minutes from the time of ceasing to the time of resumption of work is to be allowed each morning.

This WA Award summary covers the basic leave entitlements for employees covered by the Vehicle Builders Award but does not include all details on leave obligations and entitlements. Full details of conditions are contained in the Vehicle Builders Award on the WA Industrial Relations Commission website www.wairc.wa.gov.au the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 and the Long Service Leave Act 1958.

Parental leave

- Employees, including eligible casual employees, are entitled to the unpaid parental leave entitlements in the National Employment Standards of the Fair Work Act 2009, as well as a number of more beneficial conditions contained in the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 (a return to work after parental leave on a modified basis and a reversion to pre-parental leave working conditions). Visit Wageline’s Parental leave page for more details.
Sick and carer’s leave

- Sick and carer’s leave entitles a full time or part time employee to paid time off work due to either illness or injury to themselves (sick leave), or because they have to care for an ill or injured family or household member (carer’s leave).
- Full time and part time employees are entitled to paid sick and carer’s leave equal to the number of hours they would ordinarily work in a two week period, up to 76 hours per year. Sick and carer’s leave is a cumulative entitlement, and any leave not taken in one year can be carried over to the next year.
- Sick and carer’s leave accrues on a weekly basis for full and part time employees.
- In the first year of employment, a full time or part time employee can use any paid sick and carer’s leave that they have accrued to date for caring purposes.
- In the second and subsequent years of employment, a full time employee can only use a maximum of 76 hours of their accrued sick leave entitlement for caring purposes, or a part time employee the relevant proportion of 76 hours based on their ordinary hours of work.
- An employee is entitled to up to two days of unpaid carer’s leave per occasion if an employee does not have sufficient paid leave accrued or has exceed the maximum amount of carer’s leave that can be taken in any 12 month period.
- Casual employees are not entitled to paid sick leave or paid carer’s leave. Casual employees can access up to two day’s unpaid carer's leave per occasion.
- Sick and carer’s leave is a minimum entitlement from the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993.
- Wageline’s Sick Leave Calculation Guide can assist with calculating sick and carer’s leave entitlements.
- Wageline’s record keeping templates include a sick and carer’s leave record template.

Long service leave

- Full time, part time and casual employees are entitled to long service leave (LSL).
- Long service leave is an entitlement from the Long Service Leave Act 1958.
- The length of continuous employment for an employee’s long service leave entitlement is based on the total time with the business, rather than any one employer. An employer who buys a business or part of a business will take on the long service leave obligations for existing employees if there has been a transmission of business. This applies regardless of anything written in the sale contract.

</tr>
<tr>
<td>When an employee is terminated (except for serious misconduct) or resigns after they have completed between 7 and 10 years continuous employment</td>
<td>The employee is entitled to be paid out for LSL on a proportionate basis. LSL payment is worked out on a pro-rata basis for the entire period of employment, including years, months and days</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When an employee is terminated or resigns after they have worked continuously for 10 or more years</td>
<td>The employee is entitled to be paid out for LSL. LSL payment is worked out on completed years of service only</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

- An employee who has completed a full qualifying period of service (e.g. 10 years) is entitled to be paid out their full long service leave entitlement (e.g. 8 2/3 weeks) on termination, regardless of the circumstances of the termination.
- Where an employee has a period of service that is less than the full qualifying period and they were terminated by their employer for serious misconduct, they are not entitled to pro rata LSL.
- Visit Wageline’s Long Service Leave page for more details and a calculation guide.
- Wageline’s record keeping templates include a long service leave record template.
Annual leave
- Full time employees are entitled to a minimum of four weeks of paid annual leave for each year of completed service, up to 152 hours. Part time employees are entitled to a minimum of four weeks of paid annual leave per year paid on a pro rata basis according to the number of hours they are required ordinarily to work in a four week period. Casual employees are not entitled to annual leave.
- Annual leave is a minimum entitlement in the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act and the Vehicle Builders Award sets out additional requirements regarding annual leave and annual leave loading.
- During a period of annual leave an employee must be paid annual leave loading of 17.5%. Annual leave loading is not paid on pro rata leave paid out on termination.
- Annual leave accrues on a weekly basis:
  - A full time employee accrues 2.923 hours of annual leave for each completed week of work.
  - A part time employee accrues the relevant proportion of 2.923 hours annual leave for each completed week of work.
  - Visit Wageline’s Annual Leave Calculation Guide to work out annual leave entitlements.
  - Wageline’s record keeping templates include an annual leave record template.
- Specific provisions for annual leave for shift workers apply in the Vehicle Builders Award. Please see the award on the WA Industrial Relations Commission website www.wairc.wa.gov.au

Bereavement leave
- All employees, including casual employees, are entitled to two days paid bereavement leave on the death of a spouse, de facto partner, parent, step-parent, grandparent, child, step-child, grandchild, sibling or any other member of the employee’s household. The two days need not be consecutive.
- Bereavement leave is a minimum entitlement from the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993.

Resignation, termination and redundancy

Dismissal
- An employer is required to give a casual employee one hour’s notice of termination.
- Prior to terminating an apprentice, an employer must contact the Department of Training and Workforce Development Apprenticeship Office on 13 19 54 to discuss any proposed termination of an apprentice.
- Except in cases of serious misconduct, an employer is required to give full time and part time employees the following period of notice of termination (or payment in lieu):

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period of continuous service</th>
<th>Notice period</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Not more than 1 year</td>
<td>1 week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 1 year but not more than 3 years*</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 3 years but not more than 5 years*</td>
<td>3 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 5 years*</td>
<td>4 weeks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
  - *Employees over 45 years of age with two or more years of continuous service must receive an additional week’s notice.
  - These obligations are in the Fair Work Act 2009 which applies rather than the notice provisions in the Vehicle Builders Award.
- Visit Wageline’s Termination and Dismissal page for more information about the requirements that must be met when an employee is dismissed or resigns.

Resignation by the employee
- Full time and part time employees are required to provide one week’s notice, except during the first month of employment, when one days’ notice must be given.
- A casual employee can resign by providing one hour’s notice.
Redundancy

- An employee is redundant when their employer has made a definite decision that they no longer wish the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone.
- An employer has a number of obligations in redundancy situations and may be required to pay severance pay. Visit Wageline’s Redundancy page for redundancy obligations.

Dismissal requirements

- Under State laws, employees cannot be dismissed if to do so would be harsh, unfair or oppressive. There must be a valid and fair reason for dismissal, such as:
  - consistent unsatisfactory work performance (which has been raised with the employee and the employee given further training and an opportunity to improve their work performance)
  - inappropriate behaviour or actions or
  - serious misconduct.
- The Dismissal information page outlines obligations and requirements when an employee is terminated.
